

WHERE IN THE WORLD DO I FIND AN INTERNSHIP?

ILS Career Panel: Summer Opportunities in International Law at Home and Abroad

Interested in learning more about international law? Feeling like you should start looking into summer opportunities? Then come to hear a panel of your fellow GW Law students share their recent summer opportunities in international law. Alums will also be in attendance to speak about their experiences and provide tips on finding internships and/or study abroad programs, both here in DC and across the world!

Some of the opportunities that will be discussed include:

- Foreign clerkships
- State Department
- GW Study abroad programs in Munich and Oxford
- International Trade Commission clerkships
- Department of Justice Office of International Affairs

Monday, November 12th in the SCC
4:00 to 5:30 p.m.

Presented by the GW International Law Society

<http://www.gwsba.com/org/ils/>