

International Law Society: Career and Internship Panel Panelist Info

- Sarah Freuden, sfreuden@law.gwu.edu

Ms. Freuden is a 3L student currently interning at the U.S. State Department, Office of the Legal Adviser. Her past positions include: Legal intern for the U.S. Department of Justice, Human Rights and Special Prosecution Section; Chambers intern for the U.N. International Criminal Tribunal for Rwanda; and Summer Associate in Litigation and International Arbitration at Shearman & Sterling LLP.
- Jennifer Babaie, jbabaie@law.gwu.edu

Ms. Babaie is a 2L currently interning in the U.S. Department of Justice, Office of International Affairs. In the past, she has worked as a Refugee Resettlement Case Worker for the International Rescue Committee and has served as Chair for the Committee of International Organizations/Global Advocacy campaign of the Assyrian Universal Alliance America's Chapter.
- John Hocker, jhocker@law.gwu.edu

Mr. Hocker is a patent attorney specializing in computer science and electrical engineering patent preparation and prosecution. Pursuing an LL.M in Intellectual Property, Mr. Hocker is working as a Patent Examiner for the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office (USPTO) and a judicial clerk for the International Trade Commission. He also participated in the GW Law Munich Intellectual Property Summer Program.
- Ariana Sarfarazi, ajsarfarazi@law.gwu.edu

Ms. Sarfarazi comes to GW Law from University of California, Berkeley where she earned a degree in International Political Economy and Middle Eastern Studies. During summer after 1L year, Ms. Sarfarazi participated in the GW Law-Oxford study abroad program. She currently works at Human Rights Watch as a legal intern.
- Seth I. Heller, Seth.Heller@aporter.com

Mr. Heller is an Associate at Arnold & Porter. He served as clerk to the Honorable Christine O.C. Miller at the United States District Court of Federal Claims and to the Honorable Randall R. Rader at the United States Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit. Mr. Heller also spent almost a year in Jerusalem working as a foreign clerk for the Supreme Court of Israel.
- Kim Larson, klarson@law.gwu.edu

Currently interning at the State Department, Ms. Larson previously worked for the Rene Cassin, a human rights NGO that educates on issues of discrimination, detention, and genocide. She worked in the campaign areas of detention of asylum seekers and protection of the UK's Human Rights Act of 1998.